6th April 2022

Guest Speaker

Steven Goodey

CEO - Multi Million Dollar Property Developer, Renovations and Room by Room Specialist, public Speaker and Educator

Based in Wellington, New Zealand, Steven serves several thousand clients with total property interests of many hundreds of millions of dollars.

Steve has been a full-time property investor since 1999 and has at one time completed a property renovation every nine days.

He invests in large scale residential and small to medium commercial investments as well as being involved in many residential apartment developments.

But Steve knows that investors need to be smart about their every dollar and spend their budget wisely, he also understands that in any market finding positive cash flow is almost impossible so he has developed his own sleek, stylish and profit generating Rent by the Room strategy that turns a negatively geared property into a cash making, equity generating machine.

Steve is a master negotiator and one of New Zealand's predominant property investment speakers.

If you want the best property deals available in the current property market you need to be receiving the newsletters and information that Steve sends to his clients.
