

Monthly Meeting 3rd August 2022

Guest Speakers

ANDREW KING – NZPIF President

Andrew has been a prominent participant in the rental property industry since he established the Residential Property Investor Magazine in 1996. A member of the Auckland Property Investors Association since 1996, elected to the APIA committee in 1997 becoming President in 2000 until 2007. He has been on the NZPIF Executive since 2005. He holds the President's position. Investing and self managing property since 1986, and author of two best selling books on investment property. Andrew has been a frequent speaker and commentator on Property Investment matters for over 25 years. Andrew wants to see the NZPIF become more involved in helping PIA members manage their own rental properties. To this end he's developed the online Tenancy Agreement and the loan deductibility calculator and manages the online market rents resource.

Andrew has a lot of information. You will want to hear him present.

SPONSOR: keyhook.

Manage your property from your pocket with
NZ's #1 Property Management App

Keyhook is the solution for self-managing landlords that maximises your weekly profits, minimises your time spent, and helps ensure the compliance of each individual property.

Keyhook manages the hassle of owning a rental investment property by enabling remote property inspections, automating maintenance and paperwork, and automatically collecting rent and chasing arrears for you. Everything is done with the click of a button so you take control only when it matters.

For a limited time, NZPIF have secured Free Premium Trade Me Property Advertisements and 6 Free Months of Keyhook for current members, as well as Premium Investor Discounts for members with 5+ properties. Visit keyhook.com/nzpif for more information.
