In store offer available at Noel Leeming Nationwide

You must present a copy of this flyer and get barcode scanned in store to receive this offer.

The construction industry loses more workers to suicide every year than any other industry in New Zealand. On average, one construction worker takes their own life every week. MATES in Construction New Zealand has one simple, but hugely ambitious aim: to reduce the number of lives lost to suicide in our industry.

MATES is a community development programme that invests in the construction workforce to lift the knowledge, tools, and confidence of our people so they can reach out to a mate if they can see they are struggling. MATES also runs a 24/7 help line and employs case managers that can connect someone who is struggling into the right supports. The evidence-based programme leverages industry participation and support to embed suicide prevention and mental health awareness into the fabric of our industry - We're Stronger Together

Offer runs Monday 31 October - Sunday 13 November 2022, and is available in store only at Noel Leeming stores nationwide, while stocks last.
